

History Vision Map

Year 1 – The 1960s

Crucial Knowledge

- History is things that happened in the past.
- The 1960s is about sixty years ago. It lasted for ten years. There are people alive today who were alive in the 1960s.
- The 1960s was a time when lots of things changed in Britain.
- People began to wear different clothes to show how they were feeling.
- People were trying new ways of making sounds for music.
- Not everyone had a television in their home and if they did the images were all in black and white.
- Most places were closed on a Sunday.

Intent

- Recap: Me and my family (Reception)
- The 1960s on the history timeline.
- Homes and family
- Toys
- Lifestyle
- Clothes and fashion
- Art
- Music
- Famous faces from the 1960s